

APPLICATION FOR RESIDENCE PERMIT FOR STUDENTS

Please fill out this form carefully and remember to sign it. An application form that is not filled out in a satisfactory manner may result in delays of the procedure or in the application being denied.

Please choose the residence permit you apply for (you can only check one option):

 General student
 Doctorate student at a foreign university
 Exchange student
 Intern
 Graduate looking for employment

This applies to an application for renewal of the residence permit of a student who has completed his/her university studies, enabling the graduate to seek work on grounds of expert knowledge.

For whom is the application form?

The form is intended for individual aged 18 or older that is:

- enrolled in full study at an Icelandic school¹ in undergraduate, graduate- or post graduate studies,
- a doctorate student of a foreign university collaborating with an Icelandic university,
- an exchange student in an Icelandic secondary school (age requirement may be deviated from),
- an intern, when working in Iceland is a part of the applicant's studies.

¹ In case of studies at a school which is not an accredited university, the qualifications for admission should be the same as for studies at university level.

What documents must accompany the application?

See further the information regarding data requirements on the website of the Directorate of Immigration.

- Passport photo (35 mm x 40 mm).
- Photocopy of passport.
- Confirmed original of a foreign criminal record certificate.
- Translation by an authorized translator of the criminal record.
- Medical expense insurance.
- Documents of financial support.
- Admission certificate.

How is an application submitted?

An application may be submitted and paid for at the reception desk of the Directorate of Immigration or at the office of a district commissioner outside of the Reykjavík capital area. If the applicant is in Iceland he/she must appear in person. If an application is sent by mail a payment receipt must be enclosed.

Application for the autumn term has to be submitted before June 1st and for spring term not later than November 1st.

When renewing a residence permit the applicant must appear in person, either at the reception desk of the Directorate of Immigration or at offices of district commissioners outside of the Reykjavík capital Area. The applicant will be photographed and must submit a sample of his/her signature.

Information about the processing fee

A fee must be paid for processing an application for a residence permit. The application will not be processed until payment has been received. If payment is not received within 90 days after the application has been submitted, the application will be returned to the applicant. Applicants wishing to re-apply must submit new applications and payment of the service fee. Further information about the service fee can be found in part 14 of this application form and also on the website of the Directorate of Immigration.

Objectives regarding time of procedure and process

The Directorate of Immigration expedites as possible its processing of applications in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act no. 37/1993. If the applicant provides all the required information in the application form and submits satisfactory accompanying documents with the application, the processing of the application will take less time.

The processing time of residence permits may be as long as 90 days after satisfactory data have been received, however, longer in instances of applications needing more effort in order to determine whether an applicant meets the requirements of a residence permit.

The Directorate of Immigration contacts the applicant or his/her representative if further documents are needed for processing the application.

Please note that the reception-desk personnel of the Directorate of Immigration do not assess applications or accompanying documents.

What rights are attached to the permit?

- An applicant who falls under the visa requirement may not be in Iceland when applying for the permit and during the processing of the application. An applicant who is exempt from the visa requirement may be in Iceland when applying for the permit and during the processing of the application for as long as his/her visa is valid.
- Permits for students may be issued for up to one (1) year at a time.
- The residence permit may be renewed for up to one (1) year if the conditions of the residence permit are still met.
- An application for a renewal of a residence permit must be submitted at least four (4) weeks prior to the residence permit's expiration.
- The residence permit does not grant a right to family reunification for a student in basic studies (American students in basic studies are exempt), however, students in masters' and doctorate studies may apply for family reunification for a spouse or cohabiting partner (after one (1) year of cohabitation) and for an applicant's children under the age of 18.
- A student is authorized to work up to 15 hours per week (does not apply to interns), but a special work permit must be applied for and the applicant may not start working before a work permit has been granted.
- The residence permit can not be the basis for a permanent residence permit.

11. Additional information

If you have further information of significance regarding your application for a residence permit in Iceland, kindly state it here in the box below.

12. Visa

Applies only to applicants for first residence permit.

If you need a visa to come to Iceland, where do you wish to obtain the visa?

If your application is accepted, the Directorate of Immigration may send a request for a D-visa to Danish or Norwegian embassies representing Iceland and as listed on the websites of the Directorate of Immigration and the Icelandic embassies in China and Russia.

13. Applicant's representative

An applicant may only have one representative at any time. An applicant wishing to replace his/her representative must submit a form to this effect to the Directorate of Immigration. If an applicant wishes to withdraw his/her authorization for representation, the applicant must send a written notification to the Directorate of Immigration stating such change. Please note that the representative may not sign the application.

Check the box regarding authorizations

I realize that all communication (including correspondence) with the Directorate of Immigration will be with my representative and that the representative will have access to the information and data in my application.

I realize that my representative, not I, will receive information about the conclusion of my application.

- I authorize the following individual to represent me regarding this application,
- to receive documents on my behalf,
- to appeal a decision by the Directorate of Immigration to the Immigration and Asylum Appeals Board in the event of my application being refused.

14. Processing fee

The Directorate of Immigration and district commissioners outside of the Reykjavík capital area receive applications for residence permits in return for the payment of a service fee. The amount of the fee is decided in the Act no.88/1991 on Additional Revenues of the National Treasury.

If the service fee is not paid the application will not be taken for procedure. If the fee has not been received within 90, the application will be returned to the applicant. An applicant wishing to reapply must submit a new application and pay the service fee.

An application may be submitted on behalf of the applicant and paid for at the reception desk of the Directorate of Immigration or at the offices of district commissioners outside of the Reykjavík capital area. An application sent by mail must be accompanied by a payment receipt and if the applicant is in Iceland he/she must appear in person.

See further information on the website of the Directorate of Immigration (www.utl.is).

15. Did you remember everything?

If the application form is correctly filled out and accompanied by all relevant data, this will expedite the application's procedure. It is therefore important that you check whether your application is well filled out, whether correct information is stated and whether you have submitted all necessary documents.

The Directorate of Immigration recommends that you use the checklist below to ensure that your application is satisfactory.

The Directorate of Immigration may request additional documents if it feels there is a need to examine whether the requirements for a residence permit are met.

19. Date and signature

I hereby apply for an Icelandic residence permit and confirm with my signature that the information I have stated in this application form, in annexes and the accompanying documents as being true and correct. I understand that giving misleading or false information to public authorities is punishable according to the Icelandic Penal Code No. 19/1940, and could result in a denial or withdrawal of a residence permit and possibly expulsion on grounds of the Act on Foreigners No. 80/2016. Violations of the Act on Foreigners are reported to the police.

I am informed of it being permissible to integrate data held by the Directorate of Immigration, the Immigration and Asylum Appeals Board, Registers Iceland and the police according to the Act on Foreigners. The Directorate of Immigration is furthermore authorized to obtain information from the tax authorities, the Directorate of Labor and the municipal social services according to the same law.

I am furthermore informed of how the Directorate of Immigration may obtain further information if necessary because of this application and as provided for by the Data Protection Act no. 77/2000.

I realize that the information I provide might be used regarding the processing of subsequent applications and/or applications by family members.

I am informed that the Directorate of Immigration forwards data to Registers Iceland as necessary for registration in Registers Iceland.

I agree to undergo medical examination within two weeks from arrival in Iceland according to applicable law and as instructed by health authorities.
