

APPLICATION FOR A PERMANENT RESIDENCE PERMIT

Kindly prepare your application in detail and remember to sign it.

An incomplete application may result in delays in its processing or in the application being denied.

For whom is the application form?

The form is intended for an individual who has resided in Iceland for four (4) years with a residence permit that may be the basis of a permanent residence permit. You may have a right to a permanent residence permit after a shorter stay than four (4) years or without the requirement on an earlier stay being met. See further the website of the Directorate of Immigration.

Rights

- You have the right to a permanent stay in Iceland.
- You don't need a work permit.
- You can apply for a family reunification.
- You may stay abroad for up to 18 months over a four (4) year period without permit becoming invalid. A stay abroad may affect an application for Icelandic citizenship.

What documents must accompany the application?

See further the information regarding data requirements on the website of the Directorate of Immigration.

- Photocopy of the passport (signature page).
- Documents of support.
- Certificate on an Icelandic-language course, assessment test or a request for an exception and documents supporting that request.

How is an application submitted?

An application may be submitted at the reception desk of the Directorate of Immigration or at offices of district commissioners outside of the Reykjavík Capital Area. Please note that the applicant should bring his/her passport along.

Information about the processing fee

A fee must be paid for the processing of an application for a residence permit and the application will not be processed without payment. An application that has not been paid for will be returned to the applicant. Further information about the processing fee is in part 11 of the application form and also on the website of the Directorate of Immigration.

Objectives regarding time of procedure and process

The Directorate of Immigration expedites as possible its processing of applications in accordance with the Administrative Procedures Act no. 37/1993. If the applicant provides all the required information in the application form and submits satisfactory accompanying documents with the application, the processing of the application will take less time.

The Directorate of Immigration contacts the applicant or his/her representative if further documents are needed for processing the application.

Please note that the reception-desk personnel of the Directorate of Immigration do not assess applications or accompanying documents.

Further information

Further information about applications and processing time is on the website of the Directorate of Immigration (www.utl.is).

9. Additional information

If you have further information of significance regarding your application for a residence permit in Iceland, kindly state it here in the box below.

10. Applicant's representative

An applicant may only have one representative at any time. An applicant wishing to replace his/her representative must submit a form to this effect to the Directorate of Immigration. If an applicant wishes to withdraw his/her authorization for representation, the applicant must send a written notification to the Directorate of Immigration stating such change. Please note that the representative may not sign the application.

Check the box regarding authorizations

I realize that all communication (including correspondence) with the Directorate of Immigration will be with my representative and that the representative will have access to the information and data in my application.
 I realize that my representative, not I, will receive information about the conclusion of my application.

- I authorize the following individual to represent me regarding this application,
- to receive documents on my behalf,

11. Processing fee

The Directorate of Immigration and district commissioners outside of the Reykjavík capital area receive applications for residence permits in return for the payment of a processing fee. The amount of the fee is decided in the Act no. 88/1991 on Additional Revenues of the National Treasury.

If the processing fee is not paid the application will not be processed. An application that has not been paid for will be returned to the applicant.

The applicant must appear in person when applying for permanent residence permit at the reception desk of the Directorate of Immigration or at the offices of district commissioners outside of the Reykjavík capital area. The applicant pays the processing fee, he/she will be photographed and submits a sample of his/her signature. Please note that the applicant should bring his/her passport along.

See further information on the website of the Directorate of Immigration (www.utl.is).

12. Did you remember everything?

If the application form is correctly filled out and accompanied by all relevant data, this will expedite the application's procedure. It is therefore important that you check whether your application is well filled out, whether correct information is stated and whether you have submitted all necessary data.

The Directorate of Immigration recommends that you use the checklist below to ensure that your application is satisfactory.

The Directorate of Immigration may request additional data if there is a need to examine whether the requirements for a residence permit are met.

13. Applicant's checklist

| <input type="checkbox"/> | Documents on support, including income-tax payment overviews for the last 12 months, employment contract or other documents showing secure support. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | Original certificate on an Icelandic-language course, stating that the applicant has completed at least 150 hours with 85% class attendance, an assessment test organized by an acknowledged party or a written exemption request and a medical certificate or other documents supporting the exemption request. |
| <input type="checkbox"/> | The applicant has signed the application. |

14. Date and signature

I hereby apply for a permanent residence permit and confirm with my signature that the information I have stated in this application form, in annexes and the accompanying documents as being true and correct. I realize that providing misleading or incorrect information to a public authority is culpable according to the Icelandic Penal Code no. 19/1940, and could result in denial or withdrawal of a residence permit and possibly expulsion on grounds of the Act on Foreigners no. 80/2016. Violations of the Act on Foreigners are reported to the police.

I am informed of it being permissible to integrate data held by the Directorate of Immigration, the Immigration and Asylum Appeals Board, Registers Iceland and the police according to the Act on Foreigners. The Directorate of Immigration is furthermore authorized to obtain information from the tax authorities, the Directorate of Labor and the municipal social services according to the same law.

I am furthermore informed of how the Directorate of Immigration may obtain further information if necessary because of this application and as provided for by the Data Protection Act no. 77/2000.

I realize that the information I provide might be used regarding the processing of subsequent applications and/or applications by family members.

I am informed that the Directorate of Immigration forwards data to Registers Iceland as necessary for registration in Registers Iceland.
